Mass Meeting Decides That an Election Be Held to Provide Waterworks.

Springville, Jan. 11.—At the last regular city council meeting the committee on public improvement was instructed to call a mass meeting for Saturday evening. Jan. 16, for the purpose of discussing the advisability of bonding the city for the purpose of erecting an electric light plant and a waterworks system. As a result of the call one of the best representative gatherings of property owners and citizens assembled as per call. It has been many a day since our city halivas packed with eager and attentive listeners and voters as were assembled last evening. The mayor had compiled the figures of approximate cost of a sufficient waterworks plant for the accommodation of the population at the present time, and also of the cost of such a system as should be needed in view of future advancement and growth. It was deemed best to abandon the waterworks proposition for the present for good and sufficient reasons, and the electric light proposition was then presented in detail from the report of Engineer Haywood. There were two propositions in this connection. The first presented was that of Spring Creck canyon, where there is sufficient water to develop seventy-five-horse power, which could be installed for less than $12,000. These second proposition was that of establishing a plant in Hobble Creek canyon, where sufficient power can be had for 20,000 lights at a cost of $15,000. There was much discussion and considerable merriment created by the blundering opposition, but the progressive element prevailed and the city council was instructed to call an election for the purpose of voting bonds or no bonds on the electric light plant proposition.

The election will not take place before the middle of February mext.

This question settled, there was no motion to adjourn, no stir towards leaving the building, and it was evident that there was something else in the air. Then the self-appointed champion of the poor widows' cause arrose and moved that we conot sell the city pasture. The sprang to their feet, many wishing to di the Faithful in Late Campaign.

Vernal, Jan. 6,—Matters are beginning to get interesting in the scramble for the position of Indian agent at White Rocks, and the guerrilla fight that is being carried on is developing the fact that the late campaign left considerable dissatisfaction and bitterness in its train.

R. S. Collett, Vernal's postmaster, and self-constituted dictator of Hannaism in northeastern Utah, is receiving some very hard joits from an unexpected source. If the remaining the training the recent acmpaign the voters of the Twelfth senatorial district were charmed by the voice of the would-be agent, as, in eloquent tones, he prattled to them of manifest destiny, abounding prosperity, balance of trade, etc., and admonished them with fatherly interest to "let well enough alone," and use their suffrages in behalf of B. R. McDonald.

Mr. McDonald accompanied the eloquent postmaster on his campaign through the district, and paid the freight, and threw handfuls of nice, round dollars into the machine hopper, to be ground out into golden phrases setting forth the many virtues of the railway agent, and his abounding love for the inhabitants of the Cistrict.

The young man was dancing on the floor and in some manner lost his balance and fell to the floor. The room was crowded wound was deemed of ne consequence at the time, but blood poisoning has recently developed and he is now quite ill.

The Mammoth reservoir proposition is to be agitated thoroughly in this city during the coming week. One meeting will be held at the city hall tomorrow evening for local people only. An endeavor will be made to interest local financiers as possible, get it on its feet again.

Her Representatives Will Ask For Change in Division Boundaries.

Vernal, Jan. 5.—State Senator Hardin Bennion and Representative Don B. Colton left this afternoon by private conveyance for Price, en route for the state capital to attend the coming session of the legislature.

One of the questions that the Ulntan county delegation will press for consideration will be a change in the line between Ulntah and Wasatch counties. The line as at present established leaves the Duchesne and Lake Fork bridges on the Price and Salt Lake roads, in Wasatch county. These bridges are used more by Ulntah county people than anyone else, and they are in consequence much more interested in their condition than anyone else. The same may be said of all that part of the Heber road west of the Strawberry valley, which is in constant need of repair, but is of no particular interest to Wasatch county, nine-tenths of the traffic being by Ulntah county teams, going and coming between the Ashley yalley and Salt Lake. There is a strong sentiment in this county in favor of extending the line to the west some twenty willes in order that the roads that are on the eastern slope of the range will be within the jurisdiction of Ulntah county. This portion of Wasatch county is almost wholly within the Ulntah reservation, and will embrace very little, if any, taxable property, and will, if annexed to Ulntah county, take nothing of value from that county, but will prove much more convenient to the general public.

ute to Their Fellow Townsman.

Logan, Jan. 11.—Funeral services over the remains of George L. Robinson, who died in Los Angeles last Sunday, were held here today in the First ward assembly hall. The building was far too small to accommodate those who assembled to pay their last respects to the dead merchant, and scores were compelled to return home without gaining admission to the building.

There was a profusion of floral gifts, the handsomest token being an immense floral arch and gates, the token presented by the merchants of the city.

Moses Thatcher delivered an eloquent address, in which he sketched the principal events of the busy career of the deceased and enlarged upon the evidence they afforded of his honesty, integrity and industry.

President Angus M. Cannon of Salt Lake, who knew the deceased and his parents, too, paid him a high tribute of praise. He and Mr. Thatcher were the only speakers. Many people followed the remains to the grave.

The appointment of Norman G. Allen of Wellsville as engrossing clerk of the house does not set well on the stomachs of local Republicans. They attribute it to Congressman Howell's work, and in view of the fact that Wellsville has the Congressman and a representative in the legislature, they think it decidedly "nosgish" for that town to also gobble the only legislative appointment.

Draper Citizens Hold Mass Meeting

Draper Citizens Hold Mass Meeting and Discuss Proposition.

Draper, Jan. 11.—At a mass meeting held here last night it was decided to organize and support a commercial club in this town. The meeting was well attended and the sentiment in this direction was universal. Heber A. Smith acted as chairman and E. E. Peebles as secretary. A committee of five as follows, D. O. Rideout, E. W. B. Enniss, J. R. Rawlins, Thomas Vawdrey and S. J. Mickelson, was appointed to frame a constitution and by-laws, and was to report next Saturday night, when a perfect organization will be effected: The idea is not a new one, but no definite steps have been taken until now. The move has the backing of all our influential men, and success seems to be assured.

A. J. Nielson and B. F. Fitzgerald returned yesterday from Idaho, where they had been in the interest of the Draper Livestock company.

distinguished leader of that party in whose interest the majority of the Republican legislative candidates were cleeted.

Mr. Smoot announced, several months ago, at a Republican love feast held at Provo, that if the people of Utah desired him for senator he would accept the honor.

Mr. Smoot is alleged to have said since the election that he had secured a majority of the members of the legislature and would be elected senator.

The latest development in the senatorial situation comes to us through a special dispetch to The Herald detailing an interview given The Herald's representative by Senator Tom Kearns, in which he says that distinguished Republicans say that the proposed election of Mr. Smoot would raise merry hell with the Republican party, of words to that effect, and that when he came to Utah to spend the holidays, he bore a message from Senator 8 Hanna and President Roosevelt to Mr. Reed Smoot, which message was to the effect "that the election of an apostle would arouse opposition and inject an unfortunate question into national politics, and create unfavorable comment." Senator Tom also said: "This afternoon President Roosevelt requested me to state, in the manner I am now stating it that he very much hoped no apostle would be elected."

And that's the situation now.

Two years ago, when Reed Smoot actually controlled a majority of the legislature, and could have been elected, instead of Tom Kearns, "some distinguished Republican" played practically the same smooth game to induce Mr. Smoot to stand aside, with the promise, expressed or implied, that it would be his next turn to break into the Millionaires club, and that he would not be opposed by Hanna and the gans.

The people of Utah have spoken.

The sky pllots have had their say.

Roosevelt and Hanna have conveyed to Mr. Smoot their tale of woe.

Now, what will Reed Smoot do?

What will Mr. Smoot's superiors (who are "not in politics") advise and "ounsel" (or command) Mr. Smoot to do?

Stand pat, Brother Smoot, and let us see what Hanna and Hoa

BEET CONTRACTS FOR 1903. Sugar Company Is Signing Up With Farmers.

The Amaigamated Sugar company has begun making contracts for the beets to be used next season in the Ogden factory. The contracts for this season are practically the same as last season, the only difference being that this year the contract guarantees to the beet raiser the privilege of purchasing beet pulp in proportion to the amount of beets which he supplies and at the usual price. The desirability of the pulp as a fattening food for stock has led to a keen competition for this by-product of the factory and while the custom has been to give the beet growers the preference in the purchase of the pulp, still in the coming season that preference is guaranteed by contract. The Amalgamated Sugar company by contract.

From present indications, the acreage of beets planted for the Weber county factory will be at least one-fourth greater than any season since the building of the factory.

SNOW IN MOUNTAINS.

Amount in Excess of Supply a Year Ago.

William G. Wilson, county commissioner, who is familiar with conditions back in the mountains and the canyons leading up from Ogden valley, by reason of the fact that he is engaged in securing logs for use at his saw mill in Ogden canyon, stated some time ago that there is more snow in the hills at present than there was at the same time last March. The statement was made before the recent flurry which undoubtedly piled up several inches more. It therefore seems reasonably certain that the water supply of northern Utah will be ample in 1903 as compared with that of 1902.

Ogden Briefs.

BISHOP MYRON TANNER of Provo died at the home of his son, Dr. J. M. Tanner of Forest Dale yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. His remains will be taken to Provo tomorrow morning and on Wednesday at 1 o'clock the funeral will take place from the Provo tabernacle. He was 70 years of age.

Bishop Tanner was one of the best known men in the state south of this city, and particularly in Utah county. For more than thirty years he was bishop of the Third ecclesiastical ward of the Mormon church at Provo. His The Weber stake Sunday school board held its regular monthly meeting yes-terday in the Weber stake academy. Miss Effie Nebeker is in Ogden, the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Z. Terry.

Mrs. James A. Herne is personally representing the production of "Shore Acres," the play which appears at the husband and which appears at the Grand opera house tonight.

The city council meets tonight and it is expected there will be more telephone franchise talk.

Ogden State Journal: It begins to look as though there would be a little fun going on in. Utah political circles before many moons, and all on account of the United States senatorship which Apostic Reed Smoot of Provo thinks is coming to him, as the result of the election fare which was played on the 4th day of last November. It will be remembered that at the last so-callea election the Republican party's candidates were elected-cleeted because they were voted for by real Republicans as well as by men and women who always theretofore had trained with the Democratic party and worded the Democratic ticket. Without taking time to discuss the why and the wherefore of the wholesale changes of heart that took place in Utah, we desire to say that the election terminated in Jayor of the party that was booked to win, and that Apostle Reed Smoot is the distinguished leader of that party in whose interest the majority of the Republican legislative candidates were elected.

Mr. Smoot announced, several Lionths ago, at a Republican love Jeast held at Provo, that if the people of Utah desired him for senator he would accept the honor.

Park Record: President Roosevelt, like all other sensible Republicans, advises against the election of Apostle Reed Smoot to the senate of the United Stares.

Smoot to the senate of the United States. However, notwithstanding the protest that is heard all over this broad land, the apostle still persists in his determination to be elected—if he can. We sincerely hope the legislature will consider the best interests of Utah and turn the gentleman down. There are plenty of other aspirants just as capable as Smoot, and whose election would be hailed with delight instead of derision, as will be the case if the apostle wins. Mr. Smoot can do far more good at home quietly attending to his ecclesiastical duties, than hy being elected United States senator against the wishes of the nation. Withdraw your name, Mr. Smoot, thus showing that by no act of yours will Utah's onward march be retarded.

Provo Democrat: Roosevelt is a great president. He does most extraordinary things. What business is it of his whom the people of a state send to the senate? Is he president of all the people of our nation, or president only of a ring of politicians? He has the interests of Utah at heart. Yes, so long as I'tah will submit to his nolitical dictation and give political pap. But, after all, it will be well for the Republicans of Utah to heed the admonition of the administration. Stand in with the administration. They can't afford to do anything idse. Utah must be in complete harmony with the dominant party, eh?
